LILLIAN BRINSON

Foreword

Our school days, which are now coming to a close, are filled with many cherished memories. We here pause to look back upon the friends and happiness we have had. To help us remember, and share with you these special memories, we present to you this volume of the "62" TIGER, which will bring to you the past, the present, and a glimpse of the future events at Carver High School.

In Dedication

We, the graduates of 1962, take pride and pleasure in dedicating this book to those that make it possible for us to reach our goal of success. We know that without the help of these (our parents, teachers and principal), our goal would never have been reached.

First, our parents sacrificed things to keep us in school. This we will always thank them for.

Second, after staying in school, our teachers taught us and helped us build a foundation upon which to stand. This we could not do without, because we are now going out into the world and this foundation is what we will build from.

Third and last, we give thanks to our principal. He helped greatly by guiding us along each milestone of our journey toward success.

And I say again, we the graduates of "62" give pride, pleasure and thanks in dedicating this volume of the "1962" Tiger to our parents, teachers and our principal.

Principal's Message

I wish to take this opportunity to greet you and commend you, members of the class of 1962, for the educational achievement which you have made. There is, however, still a hard climb ahead for you have by no means reached the end, but merely the beginning of your educational endeavors. There will be many hardships, difficulties and temptations along the way, so beware of the tendency to become satisfied with little or no progress. Set a goal for yourselves and work toward that end. As long as you do this, you will make progress and will ultimately reach your goal.

There is a saying that, "satisfaction is the death of effort." Never let it be said that you, the class of 1962, ever became satisfied. Use these educational experiences which you have acquired along with your many talents to help your fellowman, your country and the world, and remember that, "The glory of tomorrow is rooted in the drudgery of today." May each of you realize the ambitions, dreams and aspirations which you have developed while a student at Carver High School.

CLASS POEM: CHALLENGE

From Freshman to Senior is a long road.
Many companions were lost by the way,
Diligently we have carried our load
Awaiting this happy and joyful day.

Four years of hard work and patience we've spent
And today we have at last reached our goal,
It's hard to realize where that time went
But have we actually reached our goal?

Graduation is but a stepping stone
On this twisting bending stairway of life,
Here we stand bewildered, on our own
But we can't turn and run because of strife.

If the highest peaks we are to find
And meet our success some future day,
We'll have to put our misgivings behind
And meet life with squared shoulders, Come what may.

JANET BELL

CLASS MOTTO: Education is a step to success.

Class History

The Senior class of 1962 is one that we consider to be grandest of all. It has been previously proved that "success comes to those who wait and are prepared for it." Throughout the past four years, the students who are departing have strived for that which is supreme.

On a pleasant day in September, 1958, approximately one hundred thirty students entered Carver High School as Freshmen, many of them this being their first year as students at Carver. During that year our class received many ups and downs, but with our principal, Mr. E. K. Tolbert, and our homeroom teachers: Mr. Wright, Mr. L. W. Hickerson, Miss L. B. Hardy, and Mrs. N. G. Washington to assist us, we finally began to settle down and acquaint ourselves with our surroundings. Many of our classmates participated and held offices in various activities and organizations such as: Glee Club, N. H. A., N. F. A., Dramatics Club, Science Club, Band, etc. Dorothy Grady was elected "Miss Homecoming Queen" and N. F. A. attendant. We closed our freshman year with many of our classmates receiving honors and being Honor Students.

In the fall of 1959 we again entered Carver, a little calmer than the previous year, with approximately the same number of students. Our advisors for the year were Mr. J. Creech, Miss L. B. Hardy, and Mrs. G. G. Whitley. Achievement, success, and honor were our by-words for our many triumphs. We were quite proud of our students, approximately fifteen were listed as Honor Roll Students. A few receiving such honors were: William Baker, Lillian Brinson, Carol Cobb, Mary Goodman, Alice Green, Christine Henderson, Janet McClain, Lillie Pearsall, Doris Royall, Richard Sauls, Marjorie Worrell, Robert Bowden, and others. Doris Flowers, Dorothy Grady, and Richard Sauls entered the District Typing Contest. Again many of our classmates joined various activities and organizations. Geraldine Kornegay was chosen "Miss N. F. A. Queen." Before the close of the school year, the Junior Class needed the able assistance of some of our outstanding classmates, such as Lonnie Bennett, Carol Cobb, Donial Codgell, Doris Flowers, Vernon Robinson, Dorothy Grady, Billie Southerland, Geraldine Kornegay, Windell Sutton, and Marva Lee to make the Junior-Senior prom a success. We concluded the year with a great number of our classmates receiving certificates and medals for maintaining a high degree of scholarship.

As the summer vacation months quickly rolled away we entered Carver with approximately one hundred-twenty-one Juniors of 1960-61. Our advisors for that successful year were Mrs. M. B. Chasten, Mr. B. F. Clark, and Mrs. G. G. Whitley. We believe this to have been the best year ever spent at "dear old Carver." Aside from looking forward to the Junior-Senior Prom we also looked forward to winning all of our basketball games, since such great stars as Billy "Stilts" Southerland, Lonnie "Hup" Bennett, Franklin "Lips" Miller, Vernon "Satch" Robinson, Carl Best, Henry Gaines, Dennis Kelly, and James Robinson were on the team. However, we were disappointed, but still very proud of our boys for the efforts that they displayed. During the year our class officers were: William Baker, President, Billie Southerland, Vice President, Carol Cobb, Secretary, Minnie Bizzell, Assistant Secretary, Dorothy Grady, Treasurer, Hooper Monk, Parliamentarian, and Geraldine Kornegay, Reporter. Many of our students were still members of various organizations. Those who were members of the National Honor Society for 1960-61 were: William Baker, Lillian Brinson, Myrtle Bynum, Carol Cobb, Mary Goodman, Dorothy Grady, Christine Henderson, Arnelia Jones, Janet McClain, Lillie Pearsall, Doris Royall, Annie Outlaw, and Marjorie Worrell. Lillian Brinson, Ronnie Wilson, and Marjorie Worrell entered the District Typing Contest. Donial Cogdell, Larry Durham, Levernal Langley, John Thompson, Richard Sauls, Delmas Davis, Frederick Waters, Robert Bowden, Marjorie Worrell, William Baker, and George Grandy, were bus drivers from the Junior class. Donnie Flanagan was chosen as "Miss Homecoming Queen" of '60-'61. Her escort was Lawrence Brewington. In May of the year, we approached the special event we had all looked forward to since entering Carver in 1958. The theme of our prom was "Stardust." The success of this, our long awaited Junior-Senior Prom was considered an excellent one. From our most popular class the following students were elected: William Baker, President, Dorothy Grady, Vice President, Doris Royall, Secretary, Robert Wheeler, Parliamentarian, and Carol Cobb, Editor of the Carver Tip.

Now that the year 1961-62 has finally come when we shall spend our last days in high school, there are sad hearts and glad ones, too, for it is the year which contains the day when we will walk down the aisle and smile and remember with warm hearts, the red streak that the Seniors of '62' painted in the hearts, have of the students, teachers, and our principal, Mr. G. C. Hawley. We have chosen the following officers to guide us along with our competent advisors, Mr. M. A. Blount, Miss P. Y. Malloy, and Mr. B. F. Clark: William Baker, President, Lonnie Bennett, Vice President, Doris Royall, Secretary, Richard Sauls, Treasurer, Cora Jackson, Reporter and Dorothy Grady, Editor. For us this is the last year for us to participate in the various organizations sponsored at Carver High School. Robert Wheeler, President of the N.F.A., Lillie Pearsall, President of the N.H.A., Lonnie Bennett, President of the Glee Club, Alice Adams, President of the Commercial Club, and Carol Cobb, Vice President of the National Honor Society are a few of the offices held by some of the members of our class. The Senior National Honor Society is a very active organization at Carver. Members are: William Baker, Lillian Brinson, Reporter, Myrtle Bynum, Vice President, Mary Goodman, Assistant Secretary, Dorothy Grady, Christine Henderson, Secretary, Janet McClain, Annie Outlaw, Lillie Pearsall, President, Doris Royall, Treasurer, and Marjorie Worrell. We are immensely proud of the students of the Senior Class who are Honor Roll and Honor students. After graduating from High School many of us will have only the memories of our high school days, but for others the days spent at Carver High School will always linger. For these memories, we wish to thank the teachers, principals, former students who helped to make these days - - - - "Everlasting."

Class Prophecy

Classmates, it is a well-known saying often proven true, that "Coming events cast their shadows before." Therefore, it is not hard as many people suppose for one who takes the trouble to study the comings and goings of his fellow-creatures, to be something of a prophet, and to form some idea of what their future course of action will be.

I have, just for the sake of practice, or as a means of preparation, kept a sharp eye on all of you, when you were perhaps unaware that you were being observed or studied at all; so I feel that I have judged with some degree of accuracy the lives into which your personal characteristics and inclinations have led you.

A vision of the future in the form of a dream appeared to me recently. It was a strange and unusual dream; yet, a revealing one of my classmates of 1962. The courses of their lives had led them into many careers. I saw Delmas Davis, George Grandy, and Levernal Langley as members of the Armed Forces. Jimmy Price and Robert Wheeler were Pilots in the Air Forces, flying the latest jets. Cora Jackson was also serving her country in the Air Force. Hooper Monk, a successful Politician, was forever debating with members of Congress.

As my scenery began to change, I caught a glimpse of that famous Guitarist, Bobby Swinson as he prepared to appear on the Ed Sullivan Show. Also awaiting their appearance were the Cordells, consisting of Earl Wright, Vernon Robinson, Franklin Miller, and Lonnie Bennett, Their latest song was number one throughout the nation.

My dream began to take another course, this time to the sport spotlights of the United States. There I saw Billie Southerland, James Robinson, Henry Gaines, and Carl Best, as Professional Basketball stars, onto the court! The actions they were displaying were true reflections upon the excellent coaching they had received in former years.

As I continued into the future further, I saw those who were exhibiting their excellent abilities in the teaching profession. Janet Bell, Delores Fields, Franklin Miller, Rachel Wall, and Myrtle Bymun were behind their desks in various classrooms instructing their students. In the high school department I saw Arnelia Jones as a Social Studies teacher and Doris Royall as a Commercial Instructor. Dorothy Grady, Janet McClain, and Fredrick Waters were considered the most outstanding Mathematicians in their field. Wendell Stuton was a successful Doctor of Medicine in Washington, D. C. Walking down the corridors of General Hospital were several Registered Nurses who looked familiar. As I studied each of them more closely, I recognized them as Wilma Hooker, Mary Goodman, Donnie Flanagan, Shirley Louis, and Juliateen Wright. Across the city, Marjorie Worrell was a Registered Nurse at Walter Reed

Hospital and Lillian Brinson was a nurse for the most outstanding Physicist in the state of Virginia, William Baker. I saw Richard Sauls, a famous Chemist in his laboratory doing research on a nationwide project. My dream then took me on a visit in the Western portion of the U. S. I regarded Elizabeth Bizzell, Virginia Kelly, and Mary Owens performing duties in their communities as Practical Nurses. As this scene began to change, I cast a backward glance at Memorial Hospital. There I saw Christine Henderson and Geraldine Kornegay as Surgicial Nurses going into Surgery. Down the street William Robinson and Earl Wright were successful Morticians.

My scenery traveled at a rapid pace throughout the country, but it slowly decreased for I saw members of the class of 1962 helping those less fortunate than themselves. Lawrence Brewington was a devoted Social Worker, Lillie Pearsall, now married, was a famous Sociologist and Alice Adams, who had devoted her life's work to helping children, was a Child Psychologist. Faster it traveled again until it focused on the people who had had an interest in Business. A convention, I soon learned, was the reason why smartly dressed women were continously entering the Ritz Hotel in New York City. Upon entering and inquiring at the desk, I was told that this was the Beauticians' Convention. Such famous Beauticians as Annie Best, Doris Ezzell, Elaine Faison, and Annie Frazier were already present. Nancy Barfield, Alice Green, and Ruby Smith were expected to fly in from California that evening. Vernann Armwood was a successful Hair Stylist in New York. Peggy A. Holloman and Beulah Stringfield were Paris's leading Fashion Designers. Donial Codgell was at the height of his Artist career in Florida's coast. While visiting the Empire State Building and several offices, I chatted with Annie Outlaw and Mary Kornegay, Secretaries. They told me that several of our classmates were working as secretaries in the building with them. They were Minnie Bizzell, Doris Flowers, Betty Lamb, and Marva Lee. While traveling upward, saw myself, Carol Cobb, as an Executive Secretary and Ruby Jones as a Typist. Shirley Faison, whom I stopped and chatted with, told me that she was married and working as a Telephone Operator for Bell Telephone Company.

My dream ended with a homeward journey to North Carolina. The surroundings were unfamiliar. I saw a familiar face and stopped to inquire about my surroundings and some of my classmates. Larry Durham informed me that he was a successful Mechanic and that Larry McGowan, and Eddie Raynor were also Mechanics living in various parts of the state. He informed me that Robert Bowden, Dennis Kelly, and Lemond McKinney were Barbers in Goldsboro.

ADVERTISERS

This above all — to thine own self be true,
And it must follow, as the night the day,
Thou canst not then be false to any man.
